

DOEACC's Student Bags first prize in Cypress Semiconductor's PSoC Innovator Design Challenge

Mr.Sriram V.S, Student of VL500: PG Diploma in VLSI Design, has secured First Prize in the prestigious PSoC [Programmable System On Chip] Innovator Design Challenge conducted by the world leader in programmable Solutions, M/S Cypress Semiconductors [<http://www.cypress.com>]

He won the prize competing with close to 150 outstanding projects from prime institutions across the country. The contest was evaluated by a panel of renowned professors and experts from the industry, in the grand finale held at Anna University Chennai on 30th March 2009.

First prize also entitled him a cash award of Rs.1Lakh and Plaque from M/S Cypress Semiconductors.

PSoC IDC Results and Photos: <http://www.psocidcindia.com>

The Vice-Chancellor of Anna University
Dr. P. Mannar Jawahar presenting the
First Prize to Sriram V S of DOEACC Centre, Calicut